How to get to us:

Olomouc, due to its location right in the middle of Moravia, is easily accessible by road and train. Arriving from Prague you can take the fast motorway via Brno, from Vienna there is also a speedy and comfortable connection on roads and partly motorways via Bratislava and Brno. Olomouc is also conveniently accessible by car from Poland and Slovakia.

1. By air

- Brno - Airport Tuřany (70 km)
- Ostrava - Leoš Janáček Airport in Mošnov (80 km)
- Katowice - Katowice-Pyrzowice (210 km)
- Bratislava - M. R. Štefánik Airport (210 km)
- Vienna - Vienna International Airport (260 km)
- Krakow - Kraków-Balice (265 km)
- Praha - Airport Ruzyně (280 km)

Olomouc is easily accessible from all of these airports by train, bus or car. You can also use means of individual transport, which will bring you for a reasonable price from the airport terminal directly to the hotel or to a specified address.

2. By car

The Czech Republic has a relatively good quality network of highways, through which you can easily get to Olomouc from major destinations such as Prague, Brno, Ostrava and Vienna.

- Praha - Olomouc: 284 km (route via Brno)
- Vienna - Olomouc: 216 km (route via Bratislava, Brno)
- Brno - Olomouc: 78 km (route via Vyškov, Prostějov)
- Ostrava - Olomouc: 95 km (route via Hranice)

When driving on the highway you will need a road tax vignette. For more information please visit www.ceskedalnice.cz.

3. By train

Olomouc is also an important railway junction. Passengers have access to many high-speed trains, like the Intercity and Eurocity trains and passenger trains for regional transport, or the modern Pendolino train which provides a fast and convenient connection to Prague and Ostrava. It takes you from Olomouc to Prague in just two and a half hours. The "yellow" RegioJet trains also offer comfortable travel.

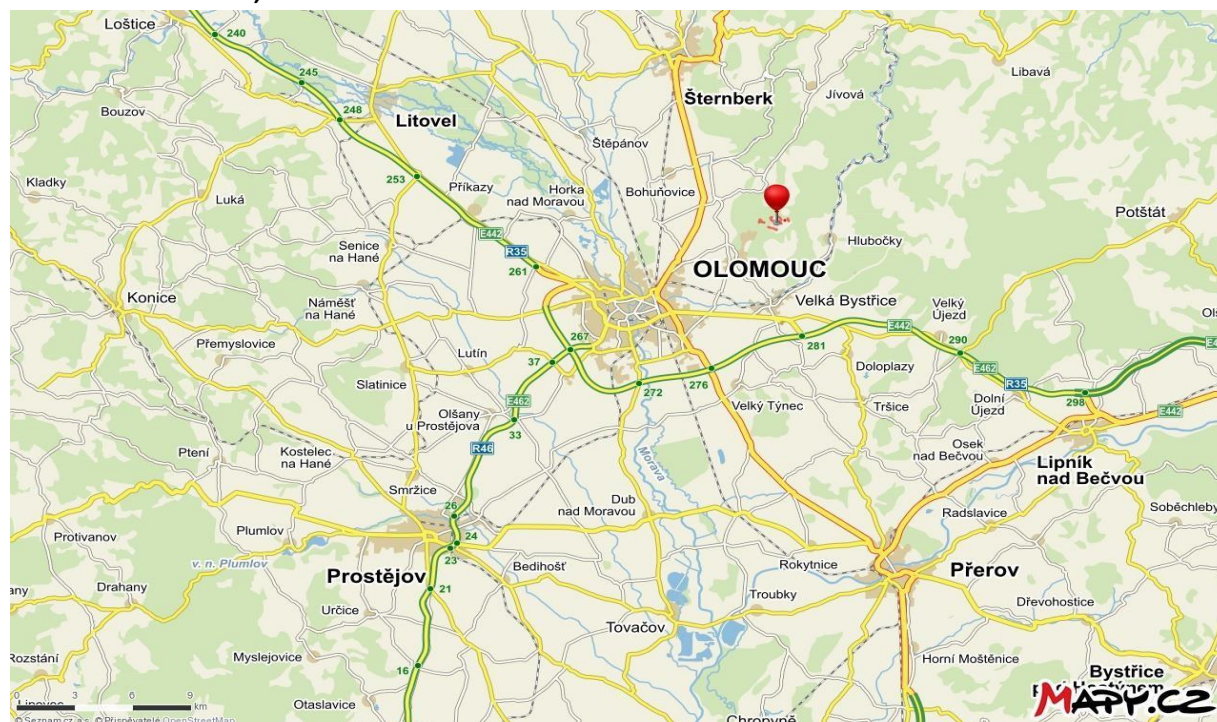

Current information on train connections can be found on www.idos.cz.

4. By bus

Traveling by bus is in most cases cheaper than by train, sometimes also faster. For information about domestic and international timetables, see www.idos.cz.
